MINOR MENTION.

N. Y. Plumbing Co.
New spring goods at Reiter's, tailor.
The city council meets to-morrow evening.

Additional Council Bluffs news on the seventh page.

Secure your seats at Bushnell's for the concert to-night.

The popular resort is the Manhattan, 418 Broadway, Radio & Yennawine.

L. A. Caspar, the florist, is to commence the erection of a $2,500 residence next month.

At last the city pound has one inmate, an old horse, too poor to get board anywhere else.

The entertainment for the benefit of Rev. Father Healy is expected to be among next week's attractions.

M. O'Connor was taken in from the streets yesterday for being the drunkest man Officer Beswick could find.

No marriage permits have been issued by the county clerk for nearly a week.
Cupid is drowsy this hot weather.

Frederick Davis has sold his interest in the livery stable of Davis & Land, his partner, Theo. Land, having bought him out.

A dirt hauler's team took a run yesterday, and brought up against a wire fence on Tenth street, cutting the horses somewhat.

In the district court yesterday the case of Beebe vs. the Equitable Life association, of Waterloo, Ia., was still being heard.

Frank Ryan, one of the section gang at the transfer, had his foot badly smashed yesterday. He was taken to his home in the western part of the city.

A strawberry and ice cream festival will be given by the ladies of the German Catholic church May 17 in Masonic hall.

A quadrille party will be given after the festival.

The Ladies Musical society is not a money-making organization. Its chief aim is to stimulate musical interest in both Omaha and Council Bluffs. Remember the concert to-night.

The funeral of May Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Anderson, took place yesterday afternoon from the home on South Eleventh street.

George Cotton, who was arrested for burglary at A. W. Wyman's house, is lying in the county jail, while the grand jury is examining his case. It is expected that an indictment will be returned today.

The stakes have been set for the new hotel at Lake Manawa. It will be a thirty-room house, situated on the west end of the lake, and is to be made larger as the season advances, and the demand increases.

The McGibeny family at the opera house next Monday will draw a large audience. Their entertainments have so many popular features as to please all. They have merit as well, and some of the family are really artists.

The funeral of John O'Brien was held at the Catholic church yesterday morning. There was a large attendance.

The boys from St. Joseph's academy, where Johnnie had attended school, marched in a body and the pall bearers were selected from their number.

The division superintendent of the Western road is here to meet with the yesterday at the transfer to arrange such details as are necessary to carry on the agreement reached by the general superintendents when the recent squabble over transferring freights here was adjusted.

Captain O'Brien yesterday arrested a man giving his name as Stofield. The fellow was thought to be the one who attempted to break into a car at the Rock Island yards. Investigation convinced the officers that it was his partner who was wanted, so he was allowed to go free.

Mrs. Carter, a white woman who has a swarthy husband, was recently concerned in a row on Pierce street in which Molie Scott wounded her until it was necessary almost as dark as that of her husband.
Molie was arrested and fined, and in turn caused Mrs. Carter to be arrested.
She, too, was fined for disturbing the peace.

The plot of the Omaha addition was duly recorded yesterday. This addition will soon be sold wholly out, a goodly number of the lots having already been contracted for. Its nearness to Omaha, the high level nature of the land, makes it desirable property, and it will be speedily covered with permanent improvements.

William Grady, a colored man, is now under $1,000 bonds to answer to the charge of having betrayed the contract of a colored maiden, Uriah Green, under promise of marriage. The young lady is now said to be a mother, and her friends are now insisting that he shall bear the responsibility. Justice Schurz has the case in hand, and it will be heard as soon as the girl is able to appear.

J. G. Tipton yesterday sold the J. D.
Edmundson residence property, corner of Third avenue and Tenth street, to Mr. E.
E. Sales, the union ticket agent at the transfer, the purchase price being $2,500.
Mr. Sales and family expect to occupy the same as their home after the 1st of June. Tipton says he has a contract to furnish all railroad employes a home and is getting them fixed out at the rate of one a day.

The Fall Mall club had a most successful and enjoyable series of parties last season, and had remaining in the treasury about $135. A meeting was held last evening at which it was decided to put this surplus into the treasury of the boating club. The latter club is to open the season in about ten days with a grand ball at their boat house. It will be a befitting opening of the Manawa season. Extensive preparations will be made, and the affair will be a great social event.

Facial accidents are coming in thick.
E. M. Davenport is one victim. He stepped down quickly to catch a paper which was dropping off his table, when his nose came in sudden and unexpected contact with the edge of his desk, causing a wound which kept him busy answering the usual questions as to who hit him. Theo. Land, another gentleman known for his good looks, has two black eyes, which he has to explain several times a day. He was stepping down just back of one of the buggies in his livery stable, when one of the boys threw a stick hurriedly at a rat, just coming out of a hole. The rat was missed, but Land was not.

Captain D. B. Clark, one of the most highly esteemed of the old residents, celebrated the thirty-fifth anniversary of his settlement in this city by looking up those who are still living here who were then. He found the following:
George Canolng, J. L. Forman, William Robinson, Dave DeVol, Coleman DeVol, Mrs. Amy, Royal Amy, Henry DeLong, David Abel, E. Huntington, Gid Robinson, Frank Guitier and Mart Hardin.

Time has made many changes with the list of those who lived here thirty-five years ago. Most of the survivors named are quite venerable and their many friends hope for many years to pass before the list is made smaller.

GAS, OIL OR LIGHTNING?

The Council Considering the Best Way to Chase Night From the Streets.

A RUNAWAY JUMPER.

The Knights Templar Preparing For Ascension Day—The Ties Ordered
For the Manawa Railway—Music in the Park.

No Light Question.
The city council is informally discussing the question of how best to light the streets. The present arrangement is not proving very satisfactory, as to the quality of gas, or the price. The oil lights are declared to be fully as good as the gas and much cheaper. Another kind of oil lamp is being tested with a view of adoption in some parts of the city. Some are in favor of shutting off the gas, and using some other method of street-lighting, but the council does not seem inclined to take any such action unless the aidmen are unanimous, and will agree to dispense with the gas as long as they are in office, and have a vote upon the question. There are some in the council who protest against shutting off the gas, and then turning it on, and thus continuing a series of expensive experiments. The charter of the gas company does not expire until February 23, 1889.
When that time comes it is hoped that there will be either better or cheaper ways of lighting the streets. There is a proposition to use electric lights, but the electric light company is understood to be unwilling to arrange for the tower system unless given a ten years' contract.
There is some objection raised to making any such contract, for then the city would be tied up in part, when the present gas charter is out. Until that charter is out the company has the exclusive right to the streets for gas mains, etc., and no other gas company can well come in to bid against this one. The question is one which is bothering the aidmen brains somewhat. Some move will doubtless be soon made to get more light, and for less money. At present the city's contract with the gas company has expired, and the streets are being lighted under a monthly arrangement, liable to terminate at any time.

A Runaway Hurdler.
There was a lively runaway on Main street yesterday. A horse and buggy belonging to Mr. Greenmeyer were standing near the postoffice when the horse became frightened at a bicycle passing.
The steed went at the business of furnishing a runaway item with a good deal of enthusiasm. He and the buggy so that there was not a quorum left of the pieces even, and dashing across the street he gave a great hurdle act, clearing at one bound the team of the Boston Tea company. In jumping over this team he cleared them without a catch, except a remnant of the smashed buggy catching in a tug and breaking that. Feeling that he had done enough for one day he then allowed himself to be caught and led away peacefully. The pieces of buggy were swept up and placed in an express wagon.

A Day With Many Knights.
The Knights Templar are making extensive preparations for observing Ascension day the 19th. It is expected that a large number of Knights will be here from other cities, and the day will be one which will prove of public interest. The local Knights have been busy planning and working, and the visitors will be entertained royally. A pilgrimage has been outlined consisting of a pleasant trip up amongst the bluffs and glens, and around by the institution for the deaf and dumb, and then to Judge James' park, where there will be refreshments. All of the Knights are to be in uniform and mounted, so that the pilgrimage will be a brilliant pageantry. A number from Omaha, from Missouri Valley and other places in the vicinity, have expressed their intention of being here, to join in the observance of the day.

J. G. Tipton has good houses to rent.

Bliss, 1514 Douglas street, Omaha, will have a special display of white bonnets and hats Saturday.

Park Concert Friday.
Odell Bros. & Co. have arranged with Daly's Fifth Regiment band for their annual open air concert to be given in Bayliss park on Friday evening, commencing at 7 o'clock. The above firm provided our citizens with a very enjoyable concert last year and have an attractive programme, including some new things ready for this time, which will be published Friday morning.

J. G. Tipton says he is selling property every day and that he sometimes thinks that he will get all sold out, and then they will make a rush on him and fill him full of bargains again. He said he had some bargains listed with him yesterday in residence and business property that makes his heart go thump thump, to think he has not got the money to take care of them himself.

have a special display of white bonnets
and hats Saturday.

The Hospital Needs.
In furnishing the Cottage hospital the ladies find many things essential for the comfort, convenience and absolute necessities of such a place. They suggest that all persons having articles of furniture, dishes, kitchen utensils, lamps, mats, rugs, etc., which they would be pleased to donate, to notify Mrs. George T.
Phipps of Mrs. Wildley, who are the monthly visiting committee, and superintend the business at the hospital this month. Such articles will be promptly called for and fully received. They emphasize the fact that the donation of a timepiece will be most gratefully appreciated. We thank the ladies who have so heartily responded to our call for a basket of provisions, and still there are many calls unanswered. Shall we take it for granted that "silence gives consent," and notify you in due course for your basket, or will you give us an answer which both you and the W. C. A. will be proud to own and receive.
